

Registration Form: Albuquerque 2012

Mind in the Making Learning Modules for Early Childhood Teachers, which have been recognized by the Office of Child Development (OCD) as an equivalent for the 45 hour entry level course requirement for center licensing or as 24 hours needed each year. Mind in the Making is an 11-part, evidence-based, Facilitated Learning process that uses research – including classic and cutting edge studies – to reveal how children develop and learn, and how teachers can intentionally promote engaged learning that leads to school and life success.

What: Mind in the Making

Where: Early Educators United/AFT-NM Office, 530 Jefferson St. NE Albuquerque, NM 87108

RSVP: Return Form to Lindsay Theo 505-948-1492 or Erica Gallegos 505-359-0658

Cost: FREE

Materials: Free for members of Early Educators United, $40 for non-members

When: Mondays 6:00 – 8:30 Starting October 1st and ending December 17th

Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Center: _____

I am taking Mind in the Making as an equivalent to the 45-hours course

I am taking Mind in the Making to fulfill the 24 hours needed each year

I am interested in taking Mind in the Making for college credit

